

The Everett County Jail

William Whalen

George Frederick Root

Tempo di marcia mf In the

5 pris-on cell we sit. Are we brok-en - heart - ed? Nyet. We're as

7 hap - py and as cheer - ful as can be For we

9 know that eve - ry Wob Will be bus - y on the job Till they swing the pris - on doors and set us free.

11

8

13 mp

Are you bus - y, Fel - low Work - ers?

8

15

Are your should - ers to the wheel? Get to - geth - er for the cause, And some day, you'll make the laws. It's the 8

8

17

19 mf

on - ly way to make the mas - ters squeal. Though the 8

21

liv - ing is not grand, Most - ly mush and cof - fee and, It's as good as we ex - pect - ed when we came. It's the way they treat the slave In this free land of the brave. There is 27

23

25

no one but the work - ing class to blame.

29 mp

Are you bus - y, Fel - low Work - ers?

31

Are your shoulders to the wheel? Get to - geth - er for the cause, And some day, you'll make the laws. It's the

33

35

on - ly way to make the mas - ters squeal. When Mc -

37

Rea and Veitch and Black To the lum - ber - yards go back, May they trav - el emp - ty - hand - ed as they came. May they turn in their re - port That the Wobs still hold the fort, That a 43

39

41

reb - el is an aw - ful thing to tame.

45 mp

Are you bus - y, Fel - low Work - ers?

47

Are your should - ers to the wheel? Get to - geth - er for the cause, And some day, you'll make the laws. It's the

49

51 mf
 on - ly way to make the mas - ters squeal. When the 53

 Six - ty - Five per-cent That they call the work - ing gent Or - gan -

55
 iz - es in a U - nion of its class, We will 57

 then get what we're worth; That will be the bloom - ing earth. Or - gan -

59
 ize and help to bring the thing to pass.

61 mf
Are you bus - y, Fel - low Work - ers?
mp

63
Are your should - ers to the wheel? Get to -

65
geth - er for the cause, And some day, you'll make the laws. It's the

67
on - ly way to make the mas - ters squeal
mf

69