Way down up - on the Koo - ten - ai Riv - er

5

out West a - way, there's where the lum - ber - jacks are work - ing

9

on - ly eight hours a day. There's where the boss am most un - hap - py

13

as sad - ly he roams for he sees how the Log-gers' One Big Un-ion

17

CHORUS

am mak-ing the camps just like home. Now the days are short and hap-py:

21

eight hours we work then roam. Oh, log-gers, our lives

24

no more are drear-y for we're mak-ing the camps just like home.

27

Think of the rot-ten camps so fil-thy where we lived long, and of dol-lars spent on jobs and whis-key. Christ! How we jacks were stung! Now, since the jacks have got to - ge - ther,

31

34

37

no more will we roam. We'll fight to make our— jobs still bet-ter and make all the camps home. Now the days are 44

41

short and hap - py: eight hours we work then roam.

47

Oh, log - gers, our lives no more are drear - y for 49

we're mak - ing the camps just like home.
