you, and still do, night and morn. They in - tend that you must work till you're near - ly dead. So take a tum - ble and u - nite

15

20

be - neath our flag of red. The In - dus - trial

24

Work - ers are call - ing you 30

To come to - geth - er in one u - nion

36

true. Work - ing folk, re - mem - ber,

42

you've a world to gain. And noth - ing

48

to lose but your chains, your chains.

54

The In - dus - tri - al Work - ers of the World ask you to or - gan - ize. And force our cap - it - al - ist mas - ters our rights to rec - og - nize.

58

62

We in - tend that they must work for their dai - ly bread

66

In - stead of liv - ing off our toil and the sweat and blood we

70

shed. The In - dus - trial Work - ers

75

are call - ing you To come to - 81

geth - er in one u - nion true.

87

Work - ing folk, re - mem - ber, you've a

92

world to gain. And noth - ing to lose

98

but your chains, your chains.

103

Work - ers come join the u - nion: the u - nion of your class.

107

Then this sys - tem of slav - er - y from our midst will pass.

111

Come join the In - dus-trial Work - ers, who stand up for the work-ers' right;

115

Come help your fel - low work - ers by fight-ing the work - ers'

119

fight. The In - dus - trial Work - ers

124

are call - ing you To come to - 130

geth - er in one u - nion true.

136

Work - ing folk, re - mem - ber, you've a

141

world to gain. And noth - ing to lose

147

but your chains, your chains.
