

The Call

Herbert Tulin

Harold Dixon

2 3 4 5 6 7 8

We are

9 10 11 12 13 14

fight-ing to - day for a far bright-er day When as toil-ers we gain all we

15 16 17 18 19 20

earn. We are look-ing to you just to help us see through;

21 Oh, will you do your turn? 22 23 24 25 26 Hear the call, slaves of toil, may our

27 cause be your own; 28 29 30 Hear the call, help to free all your

31 kind. 32 33 34 35 36 Let us stand then to win and to claim as our own All we

37 earn in the days to 38 39 40 41 42 come. Speed the day and the hour, feel the

43 thrill of your pow'r, 44 Let us fight 45 to the end 46 of the

47 way. 48 Let us help 49 see it through 50 in our

51 Grand O. B. U. 52 Hear the call 53 of your kind, 54 all to -

55 day. 56 There's a way to be free 57 when all 58 La - bor shall be 59 In our 60

61 62 63 64 65 66

U-nion to stand for their right. Let us know that you hear, for your

67 68 69 70 71 72

du-ty is clear; Toil-ers, come show your might! Hear the 73 74 75 76

call, slaves of toil, may our cause be your own; Hear the

77 78 79 80 81 82

call, help to free all your kind. Let us stand then to win and to 83 84 85 86

claim as our own All we earn in the days to come. Speed the day and the hour, feel the 91 92 93 94

87 88 89 90

thrill of your pow'r, Let us fight to the end of the

95 96 97 98

way. Let us help see it through in our

99 100 101 102

Grand O. B. U. Hear the call of your kind, all to -

103 104 105 106 107

day. Hear the call, slaves of toil, may our cause be your 108 109 110 111 112

own; Hear the call, help to free all your kind. Let us

113 114 115 116 117

stand then to win and to claim as our own All we earn in the 118 119 120 121 122

days to come. Speed the day and the hour, feel the 123 124 125 126

thrill of your pow'r, Let us fight to the end of the 127 128 129 130 131

way. Let us help see it through in our Grand O. B.

132 133 134 135 136

U. Hear the call of your kind, all to - day.