do not fear their lynch - ing threats, Their gun - men nor their jails. And here to-day we stand as one: Our U - nion nev - er fails. Oh, cruel was this, his mar - tyr-dom, Suf - fered by our pa - tri-ot bold, When dragged u - pon the rough paved streets, All for the greed of gold; Sure,

49

53

57

61

Christ him-self, when on this earth Suf-fered on the Cross; Frank

65

Lit-tle faced his Cal-va-ry: His life for free-dom gave. Sure,

69

Christ him-self, when on this earth Suf-fered on the Cross Frank

73

Lit-tle faced his Cal-va-ry: His life for free-dom gave. Here's 77

to your mem-or-y, Frank Lit-tle, Though dead and in your grave; For the 81

Work-ers' Cause you fought so hard And your pre - cious life you gave. But though you've gone, you're not for-got: Your work lives just the same. For since you left, we've or - gan - ized In hon - or of your name! But though you've gone, you're not for-got: Your work lives just the

85

89

93
