Ring the bells of glad-ness, for 'tis dawn of day. See the slaves up-ris - ing from their chains!

Haste, O, comrades, greet them out upon the way. Welcome them with joyous pealing strains.

Tremble, mammon, when the comrades sing. Tremble, mammon at the news we bring.

Proletarian army, like a booming sea, Pealing forth the anthem of the free.

Ring the bells of gladness, o'er the din and fray. Industry again is free and bright.

Lo, the toilers rescued from their cowering way. Born to independence and to light.
