

The Jubilee of Labor

Herbert N. Casson

Air--"Marching through Georgia"

2 3 4

f

5 6 7 8

f

Raise your voices, comrades, in a loud and hearty song; Music is the enemy of tyranny and wrong;

mf

9 10 11 12

Melody will help us to be resolute and strong, As we are marching to freedom. Hur-

13 14 15 16

rah, hur-rah, we'll bring the Ju-bi-lee; Hur - rah, hur-rah, the work-ers shall be free;

17 18 19 20

So we'll sing in cho-rus from the cen-ter to the sea, As we are marching to free - dom. When

21 22 23 24

La-bor is u-nit-ed, we shall con-quer every foe; Right and might are on our side to bring u-surpers low.

25 26 27 28

God is with the work ing folk, as every-one shall know, As we are marching to free - dom. Hur-

29 30 31 32

rah, hur-rah, we'll bring the Ju-bi-lee; Hur - rah, hur-rah, the work-ers shall be free;

33 34 35 36

So we'll sing in cho-rus from the cen-ter to the sea, As we are march-ing to free - dom. We mean to fight for justice and for e-quit-y a-gain; Long the new Grand Arm-y has been gather-ing its men.

37 38 39 40

41 42 43 44

Man - y friends will help us on with bal-lot, voice, and pen, As we are march-ing to free - dom. Hurrah, hur-rah, we'll bring the Ju-bi-lee; Hur - rah, hur-rah, the work-ers shall be free;

45 46 47 48

49 50 51 52

So we'll sing in cho-rus from the cen-ter to the sea, As we are march-ing to free - dom.

f