

The Song of the Proletaire

Tom O'Reilly

2 3 4 5 6 7 8

Base op - press-ors! cease your slum bers,

9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16

Lis - ten__ to a peo - ple's cry; Hark! u - nit-ed, count - less num bers,

17 18 19 20 21 Allegro 22 23 24

Swell the__ peal of ag-o - ny. Lo, from la-bor's sons and daughters, In the depths of miser-y,

25 26 27 28 29 ritard 30

Like the sound of man-y wa-ters Comes the cry: "We will be free," Comes the__ cry: "We will be free," Comes the__ cry: "We will be free."

31 32 33 34 35 36

37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44

Ty - rants quail!__ dawn is break ing, Dawn of__ free - dom's glor -'ous day;

45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52

Mam - mon on his throne is quak ing, I - ron__ bands are giv - ing way.

53 Allegro 54 55 56 57 58

State craft, king-craft, black op-pression Cannot bear our scrutiny, For we've learned the start ling les-son

59 60 61 ritard 62 63 64

If we will, we can be free! If we_____ will, we can be free!

65 66 67 68

If we_____ will, we can be free!

69 70 71 72 73 74 75 76

By our own, our child - ren's chart-a, By the___ fire with - in our veins,

77 78 79 80 81 82 83 84

By each truth-at - test - ing mar-tyr, By our___ tears, our groans and pains,

85 Allegro 86 87 88 89 90

By our rights by na-ture giv-en, By the voice of lib-er-ty, We proclaim be - fore high Hea-ven

91 92 93 ritard 94 95 96

That we will, we must be free! That we_____ will, we must be free!

97 98 99 100

That we _____ will, we must be free!

101 102 103 104 105 106

Winds and waves, the tid - ings car - ry; E - lec - tra, in your

107 108 109 110 111 112

fi - ry car, Winged with light - ning, do not tar - ry,

113 114 115 116 117 Allegro 118

Bear the _____ news to lands a - far. Bid them sound the thrill - ing sto - ry,

119 120 121 122

Loud - er than the thun - der's glee, That a peo - ple ripe for glo - ry

123 124 125 ritard 126

Are de - ter - mined to be free! Are de _____ - ter - mined

127 128 129 130 131 132

to be free! Are de _____ - ter - mined to be free!